

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT IN THE INDIAN CONTEXT: ISSUES AND CHALLENGES

ORGANIZED BY

ICC/ WEC / TSKC IN COLLABORATION WITH DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Resource Person: DR. Mamatha Raguveer. (Founder NGO THARUNI)

No of students participated: 150

Date: 7.2.2019

Report: Department of English in Collaboration with ICC/WEC/TSKC organized and extension activity on 7th February 2019, at seminar hall VGDC. Ms. Anita Abraham Head Department of English, WEC/ICC Coordinator introduced the chief guest Dr. Mamatha Raguveer founder of (NGO THARUNI). Ms. Bangla Bharathi Senior Faculty briefed the students on the objectives and aims of the extension activity.

Dr. Mamatha Raguveer in her talk on Women Empowerment in the Indian Context: Issues and Challenges, said that empowerment of women means equipping women to be economically independent, self-reliant and having positive self-esteem to face difficulties in life.

Dr. Raguveer, related stories of gruesome domestic violence cases, acid attacks and rape victims and how their NGO had to tackle with the obstacles they faced while solving the women related issues. She emphasized that steady rise in the adversities faced by women and a girl is due to lack of education, health and safety. She also stressed on the need to improve initiatives and legislation that empower women and girls.

In this context TSKC Coordinator, Dr. Suchitra Singh, (TSKCCell) in collaboration with Department of English and WEC proposed to start a certificate course on Communication Skills and Personality Development exclusively for Girls.

The session ended on a positive note as the girls enrolled for Certificate Course and vowed to empower themselves.

Outcome:

- Girls seen an observation that access to education and employment is the only enabling factor for empowerment.
- Understand the problems, and challenges and opportunities for women empowerment in Indian context.
- Analyse factors that enable socio- economic empowerment of women.

A programme was conducted by My Choice foundation on MAVA
(Men Against Abuse and Violence)

The objective of the programme was to bring in awareness stop domestic violence and Abuse. The programme is not just to focus on violence but to focus exclusively on the prevention programmes which involve creating awareness on abuse on Women and ensuring safety in colleges and community.

WEC believes that Men has an important role in bringing in awareness on Domestic violence in the society. Hence men Against Violence and abuse was an initiative programme organized by WEC to include both boys and girls and engage them in understanding the toxic effects of masculinity gender abuse. About 200 students (Both boys and girls) participated in the programme.

8 students from the College participated in Peace Champion Program workshop which was held from 15th October 2019 to 18th October 2019.
