Brief report	To sensitize the students on the environmental issues, an initiative to prepare "Green Ganesha" was taken up by the Eco club. Students prepared clay models of Ganesha and the same were exhibited. They further prepared many useful items - penstands, flower vases, mobile stands, wall hangings etc from scrap. Seeing the huge response from the students, the models and Ganesha idols made by them were displayed and prizes were given away to the students. The members of the teaching staff purchased the idols from the students for the forthcoming Ganesh Chaturthi.
Outcome	The students understood the impact of synthetic colours on the environment; they took the resolution to prepare and use Green Ganesha and further promote the importance to their family and peers.
